2. Complete Section B.
3. Complete Section C.
4. Return to the Zoning Officer at least 10 days prior to garage sale.

SECTION A: Regulation Summary

1. A Dingman township Zoning Permit is required by any property owner or tenant desiring to hold a garage sale, yard sale, attic sale, tag sale, rummage sale, or any other sale of tangible personal property on a residential, unimproved, or commercial property not having a valid zoning permit to conduct retail sales.
2. Application for a zoning permit must be made at least ten (10) days in advance of the proposed sale.
3. Sales may be conducted only between the hours of 9:00am and 5:00pm.
4. No more than four (4) sales may be conducted in any calendar year.
5. No sale may be conducted for more than two (2) consecutive days.
6. In the event that the sale is cancelled due to inclement weather, sales conducted on weekdays may be rescheduled for a date immediately after the weather improves. If the cancelled sale was to be conducted on a weekend, the sale may be rescheduled for the following weekend.
7. The sale permit must be prominently displayed at the sale site.
8. No sign may be placed on the sale site prior to one week before the sale.
9. All signs, both on, or off site, must have a valid Dingman Township Zoning permit as required by Article five of the Zoning Ordinance.
10. All signs must be removed within twenty-four (24) hours after the sale is completed.
11. Failure to abide by the regulations may result in a penalty not to exceed $500.00 per violation
